Syngenta is a world leading agribusiness company with more than 24,000 employees in over 90 countries dedicated to their purpose of bringing plant potential to life. Through world-class science, global reach and commitment to their customers, Syngenta helps to increase crop productivity, protect the environment and improve health and quality of life. Syngenta Crop Protection Canada Inc, headquartered in Guelph, contacted Second Foundation to obtain Project Management expertise for a regional implementation of an enterprise data warehouse initiative.

"Technology innovation plays a key role in enabling Syngenta's success and in IS we focus on accelerating Syngenta through information," states Teresa Wyatt, IS Manager. "This regional project is clearly seen as a key component to realizing our IS vision." "Through Tyler Francks, Second Foundation helped us by providing a top caliber project leader to head up the Canadian project team. Tyler was a perfect fit into Syngenta and she very quickly established herself as a competent and valued Project Manager for this complex, business critical IS project."

"We've been working proactively with the Syngenta team to provide IS regional advocacy, project leadership, communications and training coordination," says Tyler Francks, Senior Consultant, Second Foundation Intelligence. "It has been very rewarding to participate in achieving this business transformation," she adds. "The Second Foundation team provides experienced project leaders to manage information systems projects and help our clients to realize their goals," says David Popowich, President of Second Foundation.
